SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMME 2020

About Ngati Whakaue Education Endowment

The Land administered by The Ngati Whakaue Education Endowment was originally gifted by Ngati Whakaue in 1880 for the establishment of a Rotorua College and Grammar School. Not required for that purpose, leases were established with the income being made available for the general purpose of education. The Sudima Lake Rotorua Hotel is situated on the Endowment lands.

With the advent of Tomorrow's Schools, the High Schools Board of Governors were replaced by The Ngati Whakaue Education Endowment Trust Board in 1996 under an Act of Parliament which saw the administration come under a combination of 5 trustees representing the Rotorua High Schools and 6 trustees for Ngati Whakaue including the Chair.

The Board is a Charitable organization which meets monthly and accepts applications for funding for the general purpose of Education. These are broadly categorized under one of four main groups.

1. Tertiary grants.
2. Project grants.
3. Individual Discretionary grants.
4. Scholarships/sponsorships.

Thus, the opportunity to link with the Sudima Hotel Group to promote employment opportunities for our Rangatahi (young people) is exciting and fits well with the aspirations of the Board.

Our thanks to Sudima Hotels CEO Sudesh Jhunjhnuwala and Les Morgan, Director of Hotels and the team who worked with our subcommittee to finalise the project.

I along with my fellow Trustees wish the Project well and we look to growing this strong relationship into the future.

Kindest regards,

Malcolm Short. O.N.Z.M.
Chairman.

About Sudima Hotels

Sudima Hotels typifies the commitment that the Sudima Group has to this region and I am proud to be the New Zealand based Chief Executive Officer.

Sudima Hotels currently employs in excess of 400 team members across its four New Zealand properties. Wherever possible, we do our best to employ from within the local community and support local initiatives. Our preferred suppliers are typically local based, and we prefer to partner with progressive companies who see value in local employment, sustainability and loyalty.
